Mystic Prophecy, Angels of Fire

Through the darkness see them ride
The beast is back, will start to fight
The skies turns red, the moon fills black

Out in the clouds for the final attack
Sirens screaming through the night
The lord unleashed the beast
For a last fight

No heart and soul, only sins and lies
The sadness deep in his eyes
Angel, devil in twice

Angels of fire
And your heart and soul are flying higher
Into the night
See your wings are burning
Shining bright

Angels of fire
With your sins are flying
Higher into the fire
The devil's secret, love, desire
Angels of fire

Screaming angels
The beast never bend
The battle of souls
Forever god damned

The lord flies again
With blood on his wings
Down on your knees
For the king of the kings
