'N Sync, Here and now

Here and now
Is the way I live
Unafraid of what life gives
And there've been times in my life
I couldn't see the difference
In pain, or in joy
Or in sun, or in rain
It just seemed the same
But I'm only human
Rendered by ambition
But I'm going to make it count
Here and now
Is the way I live
With an open heart and mind
Here and now
So many intentions
In life I could have followed
But one of those paths must lead to eternal love
Here and now
Is the way I live
Unafraid of what life gives
Respect things I don't understand
All Here and now
So many intentions
In life I could have followed
But one of those paths must lead to eternal love
Here and now
Here and now
