Naglfar, Through The Midnight Spheres

Among evil gods I sleep
Their ancient hymns were my dreams
But the vast and cold forest beckons
So I rose with the funeral moon
From my coffin of blackest stone
From the crypts which for aeons embraced me
Through the portals and into the frozen night
It's calling for me...

In darkness reborned
Through the midnight spheres I dance
Spreading my wings
Caressing the black infernal night

"From a timeless past I have risen to rule this kingdom of mine"

The eye of the wolves will guide me through landscapes of ancient black
I am eternal, I am supreme

I ride the nocturnal winds
The cry of raves will carry me
Forth dimensions unknown by mortals
I am eternal, I am supreme
The nocturnal winds are mine

I descend into forests long forgotten
The naked trees united in perfect melancholy
And I saw spirits dancing, swirling insane
Their knowledge revealed to me

In darkness reborned
Through midnight spheres i dance
Spreading my wings
In this forest of pernicious black

Night is eternal
The sun is forever consumed
Embraced by the beautiful blackness
So sombre, so pure...
