Never Heard Of It, Where Am I?

where am i pressured thoughts unanswered dreams
foreign voices surround me look down on yourself is wat they said well i know whoa, because i tries to get up off my feet whoa and maybe you would see if you can feel the way i feel when i feel this way then you can sing along with me yeah, yeah, yeah come on and sing along with me whoa where am i
stuck inside this empty dream these dark clouds never seemed so mean i'm lookin at myself im here again yes i know whoa but i still try to someday you will see whoa
and maybe you would see if you can feel the way i feel when i feel like this its happiness that cannot come any other way yeah yeah yeah
come on and sing along with me x3
yeah yeah yeah.....
yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah COME ON AND SING ALONG WITH ME! yeah
come on and sing along with me x4 sing along with me!
