O-Town, From The Damage

This time
I'm done with always screwing up
I'm sick of one direction down
I'm a broken picture frame
(My whole world twisted inside out)
Screaming
Voices like a hurricane (Telling me to wake up
Get out of bed
Put your feet on the floor)
There's fresh air out the door

Prechorus:
And I've been acting so pathetic
Knocking around like a ball of string
It's taking time for me to get it
I'm ready and willing to do anything
To make it up to you

Chorus I:
My arms are hurting so bad from being so empty
My heart weighs like a ton 'cause it feels so heavy
I'm standing here all alone
Wishing that I could've known
You just can't walk away
From the damage

Last time
Playing with a broken string
It don't matter no one's listening
'Cause losing you has made me see
I've gotta change
Gotta blame it
(All on me)

Pre-chorus

Chorus I

Chorus II:
My eyes may as well be blind if I just can't see you
(If I just can't see you)
My hands may as well be tied 'cause I just can't touch you
(Touch you)

Before
The smoke can really clear away
From fires
I started yesterday
(I know I've gotta find a way
Somehow I've gotta find a way to wake up)
From the damage

Chorus I

Chorus II

I'm standing here all alone
Wishing that I could've known
You just can't walk away
From the damage

I'm standing here all alone
Wishing that I could've known

You just can't walk away
From the damage
