Oceans Of Sadness, Failure

Every day in every way hypocrites reign
Time to pay, make my day, fire away
Now...
Time has come to face the truth
About this world today, yeah me and you
Go away, disobey, pulling the chains
Every day in every way, I will remain
Now...
Time has come to face the truth
About this world today, yeah me and you
We believed in failure so we achieved this hatred
We believed in failure yeah we achieved this hatred
Inside there's an angel trying to figure it out, what is making him sad
Hold on when he dies from sadness' cause the moment that I...
We believed in failure yeah we achieved this hatred
Now I will compete with the demons that feed on the sleeping, they're eating and sucking on eyeballs and chewing on spines but they can't be divine
So I'd rather be killed in this war than to run... don't you see they're trying to eat our souls?
Like the feeling you get when you're losing it all..
I'll defeat them even if it's the last thing I do
I will curse them to hell, where they belong
So I say hell no way, go fuck you all
I remain on my way, where I belong
Hello?
Please lock all your doors tonight, keep on your candlelight
There is a chance tonight that they will try to strike
Lock all your doors tonight, children also inside
There is a chance that I will have to sacrifice
Hello?... anyone there?
