Redcore, Onesong

Within a lifetime you will see
Occuring changes
Never mind what will they be
You can't explain it

Blossom into what is thee
Another answer
How can you serve humanity?
Be a believer!

Seek the truth that lies in you...

Accept your own identity
Expect no other
What your thinking you can see
Be a creator

The link between you and the dream is to believe in Face your own reality
Look in the mirror

peak the truth that lies in you...
