

3 Colours Red, Sixty Miles Smile

So smile, the sixty mile smile
Headlight apocalypse
Sunrise, just for a while
Inject a drip
Sixty mile smile (on and on and on and on)
Sixty mile smile (on and on and on and on)
Appetites of the soul
In teeth of a snake
Filling up any hole
You're all afraid
To smile the sixty mile smile
I get so tired of being down
We fall in elegant style
Without a sound
I'm back in from the cold
Something you can't fake
True feelings on parole
We're all afraid
Sixty mile smile (on and on and on and on)
Sixty mile smile (on and on and on and on)
Appetites of the soul
In teeth of a snake
In a crowd, you're all alone
You're all afraid
You're all afraid
You're all afraid
You're all afraid
To smile the sixty mile smile
To smile the sixty mile smile
So smile the sixty mile smile (on and on and on and on)
So smile the sixty mile smile (on and on and on and on)
