Rhodes Happy, He Will Come

(4:07)
Percussion and Keys: H. Rhodes, Kevin Bartlett
Guitar: Chuck D'Aloia
She walked into the room
His wine spilled upon the floor
Something 'bout the way she dreamed
Made his ship come ashore
Her eyes didn't see the count
They saw his duality
They looked through charisma
To the pain of immortality
Gabrielle dancing on the rocks
He will come for you
He will come again
So keep your eyes searching
In the clouds
He will come for you
He will come again
There aren't worlds enough
To contain her innocence
There aren't horrors enough
To reverse her fearlessness
Gabrielle dancing on the rocks
He will come for you
He will come again
So keep your eyes searching
In the clouds
He will come for you
He will come again
see you are his deathwish
don't flee, set him free
Gabrielle dancing on the rocks
He will come for you
He will come again
So keep your eyes searching
In the clouds
He will come for you
He will come again
Gabrielle dancing on the rocks
He will come for you
He will come again
So keep your eyes searching
In the clouds
He will come for you
He will come again
