Sarah Blasko, Long Time

You like an army
Occupy my mind
The quietness of time
And I wish I could ignore you
And the impression that you made in my life

Cos it's been a long time
A long time coming around
And whether its the right time
Or the wrong time, the time is now

But you say it's important
Oh to focus on yourself
And no one else
But if this makes me happy
Oh I ask you then do I have a choice?

Cos it's been a long time
A long time coming around
And whether its the right time
Or the wrong time, the time is now

And you say who's gonna bring me water now?
You say who?
And you say who's gonna bring me water now?
Oh you will work it out, somehow.

Cos it's been a long time
A long time coming around
And whether its the right time
Or the wrong time, the time is now
Cos maybe the right time
Has just come around
