With every kiss that you give me, I love you more and more
All the little kisses that you've given me are always with me
I have them here in my heart
To remember how much you love me
And how much I love you
I need your little kisses every night, every day
Tell me little love that I'm your happiness
Tell me love that I'm the owner of your heart
I need your little kisses every night, every day
Tell me little love that I'm your happiness
Tell me love that I'm the owner of your heart
