Serial Joe, Deep

You hope that something will happen
But you're stuck with what you've got
In a maze you're lost, thinking of things that are not.
Real enough to make things different though
I don't know what it means
Confused and mixed up when everything's deep
And I don't know what it means
And I don't know why, I don't know why.

What you got, serenity
What is not deep
Your mind is rock, your mind is weak
Can't stop, it's just so deep.

You change while everything else is still the same
Therapy is quite the road to take, 'specially when you're in such a state.
That the ones you love are the ones you hate
Crack a smile when you don't understand
The touch of a loved one's hand, I don't know
Why, instead of laughing you sit there and cry.

What you got, serenity
What is not deep
Your mind is rock, your mind is weak
Can't stop, it's just so deep.

I don't know why 12x

What you got, serenity
What is not deep
Your mind is rock, your mind is weak
Can't stop, it's just so deep.
