

30 Seconds to Mars, Old Blues Song

Don't turn my head away
Wandering about all by the fields oh no no
There's no place I rather be
I will admit, I'm guilty as you want me to be
Oh Lord, you say you're coming
Oh lord, if that's the truth
Oh Lord, you say you come
Oh lord is that the truth?
You've been bothered about and just thrown in (Not sure about this sentence but hey)
Don't care about the world we need
How many sick children, they all believe
Yes I'll admit, I'm as guilty as you want me to be
Oh Lord, you say you're coming
Oh Lord if that's the truth
Oh Lord, you say you're coming
Oh Lord is that the truth?
