Smoke Or Fire, Cryin' Shame

where are my friends tonight who's looking out for me i don't mind drinking by myself i don't wanna be alone again

but i don't wanna be alone again you said you got here at 2pm here to chase last call again knew that i'd see your face some things never change tell me you'd never live to see thirty you were right my friend cause when the alcohol is emptied from the bottles and the bar stools all are stacked on top of the tables when the pool balls all are sunk into the pockets i walk along the sidewalks back home pass out till sunday...
