Something For Kate, Max Plank

So the star is my sea at 37 thousand feet forwards, backwards and underneath your last word turns like a cyclone just out side my window your good advice i'll tie around my ankle had to go had to take off and hide myself from everyone so their reasons won't become my reasons cos they're talking, talking, talking again

Well in a chain reaction you're a slow wave crashing to come and change everything and wash me away

So make with for some chaso a ripple on the surface sends me secrets and i keep them like in a reacurring dream of max plank and you're running rings around me but you can't solve me well you're trying, you're trying, try again

In a chain reaction
and wash me away

We'll stumble in the dark we'll stumble in the ark and this is how it starts this is how it starts you carry your escape everywhere just in case you find yourself there find yourself there

and wash me away
wash me away
