Speak No Evil, Let Go

I only see the red when you cross the line you'll hear me out this time You're gonna take it from me We start to overload we circle then explode we're gonna tear it down we'll tear this whole place down

Got your back to the wall
And your face is in the sand
You got your back to thewall stand up life a man

Don't walk away from me
Or you will know who i am
when i let go
don't talk that way to me I will show you what i am
when i let go

I'll sever all the ties I'll sever you and i it's never short and sweet cause you life confrontation your backs against the wall we're gonna see you fall we're taking over here it's time to face your fear

stand up like a man

don't walk away from me

Don't walk away from me
Don't walk away from me
