Spoons, Sooner Or Later

I see it in motion
Its over my head
Its moving so slow

But sooner or later
You will remember
Sooner or later
The world will wind down

The highway keeps bending
It wont let me go
And my car moves so slow

But sooner or later
You will remember
Sooner or late
Its gonna hit ya

You can walk away
You can walk away
From many things
But these circumstances
Are not in our control

Sooner or later
The world will wind down
Sooner or later
Its gonna hit ya
Sooner or later
