Subhumans, Love Is...

Love is a bastard it tears you apart
Just when you thought you didn't have a heart
Couldn't give a fuck cause you didn't know how
And suddenly everything brings you down
Love is a bastard it fucks you up
Make up break up totally messed up
Lipstick stains and little white lies
Can you see the blood running out of my eyes?
Love is a bastard it makes you cry
Do something wrong and you don't know why
Can't remember what you said
Lie on the floor and wish you were dead
