Sugababes, Undignified

Swollen eyes
No better to let you see them now
My wasted heart
Will never let you drive the demon down

When you love the devil
You'll sell your soul
And it's hard to make him go
Undignified
I am tonight

'''So give me false hope and promise
Near you're trying to
Redeem yourself for the hundredth time
Lie to me if you must, my dear
Give me a reason to have you here

Giving false hope and lies
And we still believe in
This powerful love that's consuming me
I'm hooked on a drug that steals your pride
It's hard not to see, so undignified'''

It terrifies,
Me to think i'm not the only one
You'd be suprised,
How much I cry when you are gone

Your angel's the devil
Your church is a tomb
But I need to be with you
I'm undignified
Enough for two

'''So give me false hope and promise
Near you're trying to
Redeem yourself for the hundredth time
Lie to me if you must, my dear
Give me a reason to have you here

Giving false hope and lies
And we still believe in
This powerful love that's consuming me
I'm hooked on a drug that steals your pride
It's hard not to see, so undignified'''

I'm addicted to the blatant pleasure you give
That's not how I wanna live
Controlled by you

'''So give me false hope and promise
Near you're trying to
Redeem yourself for the hundredth time
Lie to me if you must, my dear
Give me a reason to have you here

Giving false hope and lies
And we still believe in
This powerful love that's consuming me
I'm hooked on a drug that steals your pride
It's hard not to see, so undignified'''
