T.Love, Don't go Paul

I've heard your voice I've heard your voice
On the radio last night
I remember that's all i remember
Your invisible smile
But 'round the midnight suddenly
You're wave has disapeared
Please don't go Paul, please don't
Walk away, please stay, oh yeah

Please don't go Paul
Please don't walk away, yeah yeah

This morning I met you
At the stairs of your school
You looked so fine, you looked so good
You looked so perfect cool
But when i tried to touch your skin
You quickly faded away
Please don't go Paul, please don't
Walk away, please stay, oh yeah

Please don't go Paul
Please don't walk away, yeah yeah

Tonight I'll listen to
Your voice on the radio again
And i know i hope i promise you
I'll never loose your wave
And maybe one day maybe next day
I'll met you one again
Please don't go Paul, please don't
Walk away, please stay, oh yeah

Please don't go Paul
Please don't walk away, yeah yeah
