

36 Crazyfists, Suffer Tree

No sleep
No sleep for me
No sleep
No sleep for...

Not what we wanted
Not what we wanted to be
Not what we came for
Not what we came to be

I think you're holding your own
I think you're holding your own
It seems a wasted life
It seems so...

And I'll remember
I'll remember not to forget
What all this means
What all this means

Keep on taking
Keep on taking away
And I'll remember what I said
Just like the next ones
And the fast ones
Everything just falls

I don't recall now
I don't recall...

Can't come back now
Can't come back now
Can't come back now
Can't come back now

I wish I saved you
I wish I saved you
I wish I saved you
I wish I saved you

You slide away
Slide away
Slide away
Slide away

Just like the next ones
And the fast ones
Everything just falls

I don't recall now
I don't recall...

Not what I wanted
Not what you wanted to be
Not what I came for
Not what you came to be

And now it's between you and me
And now it's between you and me
And now it's between you and me
You and me
