The Bear Quartet, Number

come new year's day's morning now what did you promise this time? can you remember what accidentally slipped your mind? no more degrading
or humiliating stunts? what were you saying before you pulled down your pants

you're so much more than a number on a mensroom wall
so much more than a scratch on a bedpost
than a hole guys get off on you could be anything at all

I am entitled to speak my mind about what you do I'm not patronizing, I am merely endorsing: do what you want to not what others expect from you you are a person and should demand some respect

than a number on a mensroom
