The Lumineers, It Wasn't Easy To Be Happy For

on the last time we met your love was dead
your held my hand
bit your tongue
shut me out
spilled my blood
all around
it wasn’t easy to be happy for you I took the poison
prying you’d feel it too
you held your punches back
and I left the room
it wasn’t easy to be happy for you
all alone
your ax dfell
we dragged you down
gave me hell
made your bed
now you sleep
on your own
guess we’ll see

it wasn’t easy to be happy for you
I took the poison
praying you’d feel it too
it wasn’t easy to be happy for you
wrapped my neck and prayed that you’d feel the noose I saw the restaurant table for 2
it wasn’t easy to be happy for you
it wasn’t easy to be happy for you
I took the poison
it wasn’t easy to be happy for you
