The Medic Droid, The Killer Anna

She walks in
As I'm walking out
Should I try this once again?
Should I try this once again?
And as we kiss, I remember how it felt
To fall in love when I was young
But I can't get that feeling back
She tried to killers ?
Maybe I'm just too jaded now
I got a killers waiting
Don't say you care, I know you do
(Until you will leave I'll try and pretend)
Until you will leave I'll try and pretend
Cause we've got nothing to lose
But us so here we go again
I know you've been preachin
But I can't stop from thinkin
That when this ends we'll be the Worst of enemies (I know)
And as she leaves, I remember times we said,
"Can we try this once again?
Cause baby you're just what I need"
And as the night grows cold
Well, hold me tight, don't let me go
We got it all wrong, but baby, we'll figure it out
As you say that you care, I know you do
(Until you will leave I'll try and pretend)
Until you will leave I'll try and pretend
Cause we've got nothing to lose
But us so here we go again
Dry your eyes (dry your eyes)
I feel so alone
And I do know
This is I know, I know
We will try again...
But we never made it
I could back down but I'd get up
And I can't take another second without you here
Try timing over, rise and die
Maybe I'm the one to blame here
Girl, just know I love you too
And now we're done so here we go again
I know that I was wrong
