Tim Finn, How'm I Gonna Sleep?

There's a pure idea in every mind,
Waiting to be acted on.
Yesterday we have to leave behind,
Climbing up that hill, never stop.
But I'd prefer that you were next to me,
Making the shape that used to be.

How'm I gonna sleep without you?
I don't want this lonely night.
How'm I gonna sleep, oh baby, I love you,
And I don't need this endless night.

There's an open road on every map,
Waiting to be travelled down.
All we need is faith to bridge the gap,
That lies between our hearts and our minds.
It's staring me blind,
I don't need this endless night, this lonely night.

How'm I gonna sleep without you?
I don't want this lonely night.
How'm I gonna sleep, oh baby, I love you,
And I don't need this endless night.

How'm I gonna sleep when I'm all alone?
How'm I gonna sleep, this house is not a home.
How'm I gonna sleep that dreamy ride through space?
This comet lacks a tail, gotta failure of nerves.

And I don't need this endless night, this lonely night,
And I don't want to be alone, I don't want to be alone.
How'm I gonna sleep?
How'm I gonna sleep?
I don't need this endless night.
How'm I gonna sleep without you?
I don't want this lonely night,
How'm I gonna sleep?
How'm I gonna sleep?

I don't need it,
I don't need this endless night.
