Tinman Jones, Flutterby

When you wake up in your dream
And you don't remember what it means
You go looking to the sky
Asking why

Look your throne is over-kinged
Crowded with so many things
You've been given wings to fly
Not to flutterby

And we all would like to know
When the chains will let you go
You're all fire but no control
Get it straight now, here we go

You can fly now,
You canfly
Set your wings up to the sky
Never flutterby
Ever soaring higher
You can fly now you can fly
So this is goodbye
We'll see you in our dreams

I am sitting in a cage
I am blinded by my rage
Then the cage is open wide
Yet I still abide

Jesus cam to set me free
Came for all the world to see
Now I'll meet Him in the sky
I will fly, I will fly

And we all would like to know
When the chains will let you go
You're on fire with not control
Get it straight now here we go

You can fly now,
You can fly
Set your wings up to the sky
Never flutterby
Ever soaring higher
You are finally free to follow your destiny
Keep your eyes on the road
And we'll see you in our dreams
