Wet Wet Wet, I still can't remember your name

So what do you want from me (so whatdya you want)
So what do you want from me (so whatdya you want)
So what do you want from me
I try to live life eye to eye
But I find it far too tall
Even though youre such a natural
Thats what you are, are, are
Everybodys gonna stop
Everybodys gonna learn
Everybodys gonna try to take notice
Do me right
Give me love to last all through the night
Ah, ah, ah, ah
Say I still cant remember your name
Ah, ah, ah, ah
Say I still cant remember your name
Ah, ah, ah, ah
Say I still cant remember
Say I still cant remember, yeah, yeah
We all shed tears
We all shed tears
That turned into those showers of affection
Yes they do, yes they do, yes they do
Everybodys gonna stop
Everybodys gonna learn
Everybodys gonna try to take notice
Oh, treat me right
Give me love to last all through the night
Ah, ah, ah, ah
Say I still cant remember your name
Ah, ah, ah, ah
Say I still cant remember your name
Ah, ah, ah, ah
Say I still cant remember
Say I still cant remember, yeah
Gonna tell the world about her
So whatdya want from me
So whatdya want from me
So whatdya want from me
Ah, ah, ah, ah
Say I still cant remember your name
Ah, ah, ah, ah
Say I still cant remember your name
Ah, ah, ah, ah
Say I still cant remember your name, your name
Say I still cant remember
I still cant remember your name
Gonna tell the world about her, about her
Say I still cant remember your name
I found love again
Say I still cant remember your name
Gonna tell the world
Gonna tell the world
Gonna, gonna, gonna, gonna tell the world about her
World
Gonna tell the world about her
About her
About her (yes they do, yes they do)
