

3moonboys, By The Window

It seems as if I was right next to myself
Standing by the window, downtown
Watching and standing
My city pretending
The streets, the market square, the tenement house
As Im standing by the window, downtown
Standing and watching
My hideous city
Smearred with a Margaret Astor lipstick
Grinning at me
Alluring me
And I wont come any closer
Ill stay where I am
Ill stand and Ill ponder
How swell it is to be
Standing right next to me
