Whorecore, The Mundane Corruption

Gazing through the dark, the sight is frightening
Oh the air is stiffening, the corruption around me

Nothing but drops in a pond of vile deception
A daily dose of betrayal, nothing new

My daily dose, I wish I could abstain

Nothing but flies swarming around their shit

A daily dose of lies and deceit

The mundane corruption

Stupid inbred fuckers, this is all that you'll ever be, drown in your pool of misery
I will rise and degrade you, even if it's the last thing I'll do

Nothing but drops in a pond of vile deception
A daily dose of betrayal, nothing new
Nothing but flies swarming around their shit
A daily dose of lies and deceit

I will rise and degrade you, even if it's the last thing I'll do

My daily dose, so sickening

Nothing but lies in a world so imperfect
A daily dose of humanity, so real/surreal?

The mundane corruption

Stupid inbred fuckers, this is all that you'll ever be, drown in your pool of misery
I will rise and degrade you, even if it's the last thing I'll do,
You're apathetic

True bonds you pose  loneliness you chose  rolling around in your own filth
Loyalty opposed  craving for more?  waiting for your timely demise - rotting away
True bonds you pose  Craving for more?

And now you face reality
A lifetime spent solitary
A lifetime in hell you chose
Are you still craving for more?
