Wilburn Brothers, Lilacs In The Winter

I'll give you lilacs in winter blue skies every day
I'll give you kisses to warm you then I'll love your cares away

Life gets harder everyday I get no smarter in anyway
But when I lay me down to sleep I feel her lips on my cheek
I feel her warm breath and then I hear her say
I'll give you lilacs...

I tried to shine her golden band I left some scratches she kissed my hand
She knows I try to give my all when I'm away I always call
To hear the words that mean the world to me
I'll give you lilacs...
