Wilson Phillips, Next To You (Someday I'll Be)

Ooh ee ooh ...

Someday I'll be next to you

Montague and Capulet
Whispered through the wall
Words that they could not forget
After all

Thoughts across this violet sky
Letters to the moon I write oh
Is our love impossible?
Tell me why
Is it wrong for us
Oh to love so much

[Chorus:]
Keep the candle burning (Ooh ee ooh ...)
Someday I'll be next to you
As long as this world's turning
One day I'll be next to you
Keep the candle burning (Someday I'll be, someday I'll be)
Someday I'll be next to you

Maybe if I held my ground
Or stood up to authority oh
Then our love would not be bound
We'd be free
Is it wrong for us
Oh to feel so much?

[Chorus]

Someday love will carry us
To a place that's made for us

Ooh ee ooh ...
And ooh someday.
Someday I'll be... Someday I'll be
I'll be next to you
As long as this world's turning
Someday, someday

Keep the candle burning, burning in my heart
