

3moonboys, Petra Probazkova

You will never sing any song
For children of the mad
You will never give any sparkle away
Fear disappears from the breast
We send to you a greetings card
From the city of ghosts
We miss sou Petra
For you fuzzy heart
War is just my head
You will never sing any song
You will never give any sparkle away
We send to you a greetings card
We miss you Petra
You will never sing any song
You will never give sparkle away
We send to you a greetings card
We miss you...
