Yngwie Malmsteen, Rising Force

Out of the darkness the voices are calling riding the wings of a song
The Fury is screaming and Heaven is falling
I feel it coming on strong
Chorus
The Lightning strikes cracking the night
It feels like never before
Thunder and sparks in the Heart of the Dark
I hear a Rising Force
Searching my soul I find something else
I take my life in my hands
From the gates of Heaven to the altars of Hell
The Power is at my command
Chorus
The Lightning strikes cracking the night
I'm not the same anymore
Thunder and spark in the Heart of the Dark
I feel a Rising Force
Burned by the Glory of a Sacred fire a Rising force starts to shine alone in the inferno it soars ever higher leaving the demons behind
Chorus
The Lightning strikes cracking the night
It feels like never before
Thunder and sparks in the Heart of the Dark
I hear a Rising Force
Chorus
The Lightning strikes cracking the night
I'm not the same anymore
Thunder and spark in the Heart of the Dark
I feel a Rising Force
