

4 Lyn, Chosen

Not a single day goes by without a million questions,
a million guesses and "YES SIR'S"
Just because they don't know that YOU'RE ALREADY BLESSED, kid and you won't invest in what the rest did.
They DON'T SEE POTENTIAL in you,
so they're questionin' you.
That's the best they can do to keep you down.

Like a merry-go-round you go around and around and around like a clown! WHAT?

Something's wrong with the system you're in and they're gonna make you feel that you can resist in there.

If you believe everything they say

If you want to be safe, then STAY INSIDE OF YOUR CAVE and BREAK ALL THE PROMISES that you gave to yourself!

CHORUS:

If you believe everything they say

All your chances will fade away.

But if you see and hear with your heart,
you'll be CHOSEN to tear them apart,

Like a king without a crown you run around.

You're diften with a gift but a captain without a ship.

Givin' it all up is no option for you.

So do the best you can do

and you will see there'll be a breakthrough.

What do you want?

That's all you need to know!

Just get yourself together and your ass is on the roll.

HELLYEAH! Just step on or you'll get stepped

Or you'll get wrecked on ...

Until they've got you trapped, son!

What do you want?

What do you want?

What do you want?

WHAT DO YOU WANT?

What do you want?

What do you want?

What do you want?

WHAT DO YOU WANT?

CHORUS

CHORUS

Once in a while there is a time

When I look up and I don't even try to understand what kinda man I am,

'cuz I got masterplans!

Nice and easy that's not me!

See me, I am the PHOENIX IN BLAKK!

R. o. n. i. - so don't even try to hit me cuz I may hit you bakk!

People are tellin' the wikkedest things.

The bigger the mouth- the shorter the strings that holdin' 'em bakk that makin' 'em dance.

And this is a fact I don't understand

Why should I care about their opinion?

Why do they try to hold me down?

Is it because they know I can do much better than them
when I'm comin' around?

If I come by, then I come alone ...
Alone with nothing but a microphone!
I'm able to rokk and I'm able to roll
with blood and sweat and tears and soul!
When I do what I do best,
then you're gotta know that I spit on the rest,
I'm puttin 'em bakk on mama's breast ...
That's what you get when you're fukkin' with BRASKO ... Champion!
