

4Hero, Give In

(Verse)

You used to wake me with a smile on your face each morning lieing next to you.
Now we don't talk cause you have nothing to say so sad
Wish I could help see you through. Well...

(Chorus)

Wish time could stand still so you don't feel left behind (left behind)
You never thought you'd find yards of broken
torn apart
I know they're be times of rain those are the days that I want to give in
I'll be your friend through the cloudy days
Don't be ashamed I won't let you give in.

(Verse)

Sometimes I wish you could say all the things you want me to be
But every day that that you cry
Is a day that goes by
And you're slipping away from me (yeah)

(Chorus)

Wish time could stand still so you don't feel left behind (left behind).
You never thought you'd find you're so broken
torn apart.
I know they're be times of rain those are the days that I want to give in.
I'll be your friend through the cloudy days
Don't be ashamed I won't let you give in.

(Verse)

Hey love I've been meaning to call you.
It seem the stress of life put cracks in your armor,
But you do it because it has to be done
Although the faster you run your destination gets farther.
I wish i take away you problems with a drop
Of a dime and say its all good but its not.
Your dreams get undermined accounts get overdrawn
No matter the case girl I'm waiting with open arms.
(?????)

I know they're be times of rain those are the days that i want to give in
I'll be your friend through the cloudy days
Don't be ashamed
I wont let you give in. (x2)
