50 Cent, I'm Gonna Fly By: Becky Baeling

If you looked inside of me
Would it be the same thing that I see?
A heart of endless dreams, so much I wanna give
Now I'm dancing in the light, I finally feel alive(finally feel alive)
It's what I need to set it free

Chorus
I'm gonna fly so high
I'm gonna reach the sky
I'm gonna be a star
Move my feet to the beat of my heart
I'm gonna fly so high
Bringing the sun into the night
Make you believe in me
It's my destiny

Rising to a brand new day
Working hard to find another way
Fear wont keep me down, will you be around?
More than just a fantasy
Lookin' up through the words in front of me
Cant you see...im running free!

Chorus
I'm gonna fly so high
I'm gonna reach the sky
I'm gonna be a star
Move my feet to the beat of my heart
I'm gonna fly so high
Bringing the sun into the night
Make you believe in me
It's my destiny

Live my dreams out loud
Go to higher ground
The greatest love is what I found
I'll give you more...give you morrrrrrre
