

54 Seconds, Poppy Seed (Live)

Given you got to me, I&#039;m shakin&#039;
Where are the days I used to live for?
Given the broken words you laid on
Where is the one I used to count on?

And it&#039;s you, that gives me what I need
And you have been my poppy seed

Why is there someone else that lingers?
Why must I see your every movement?
Why do I feel like you have made me,
All I don&#039;t want to be?
Why do I have to leave the light on?

And it&#039;s you, that gives me what I need
And you have been my poppy seed

Gotta give in to it
Gotta let you do it
If I don&#039;t feel ashamed
I won&#039;t get hold of myself

And it&#039;s you, that gives me what I need
And you have been my poppy seed
