

54 Seconds, Skin

Did you let me under your skin
Did I let you know, I come undone?
Did I give you something to think about?
Did I wait too long, to come around?

Cause I can't live inside this shell
And I can't breath

I'm still under my skin
There's no other way to explain
It's too bad, you couldn't get in
There's so many things ...

Did I get ahead of myself?
Did I turn you on somebody else?
Did I fall apart at the seams?
You know it's the way it seems I'm doing now

Cause don't you see, I couldn't get out and I can't breathe with you...

Still under my skin
There's no other way to explain
It's too bad, you couldn't get in
There's so many things I want to say
Cause I'm not saying

Cause I'm not breathing
I can't get away
No, get away
And breathe with you here baby, yeah...

[You're still under my skin
There's no other way to explain
It's too bad, you couldn't get in
There's so many things I want to say]

Cause I'm not saying
Cause I can't breath
