

77 Bombay Street, Follow The Rain

Here is nothing worth of living
I cannot follow the sun and I know
There is something like a summer
Waiting for us to come
I've made choices can't deny it
But have I meant what I said, I don't know
I think it's time now to make some changes
Time to get out of my bed

Oh oh oh
I follow the rain down to the place
Where I will see the sun again
Oh oh oh
I say, I follow the rain down to the place
And I will see the sun again

Like a shadow I'm not living
Just reacting to life, now I know
We must stand up for dreams and passions
Never give up the fight
I'm thinking of that crazy moment
We were both losing sight, now I know
I was blinded by false ambitions
Now let's kill them tonight

Oh oh oh
I follow the rain down to the place
Where I will see the sun again
Oh oh oh
I say, I follow the rain down to the place
And I will see the sun
I'll see the sun again

Years are over now, we both made it somehow
Back then I didn't know I needed time to grow
And everything you said was right
It's me who always tried to change your mind
It's taken me just so much time
To get over you and leave the past behind

Oh oh oh
I follow the rain down to the place
Where I will see the sun again
Oh oh oh
I say, I follow the rain down to the place
And I will see the sun
And I will see it again
I follow the rain down to the place
Where I will see the sun again
I say, I follow the rain down to the place
And I will see the sun again