

8stops7, Fragile Accident

See light and I roll over

A day like this

And this alone

Compels me to climb over

To live through this

And leave alone

What if I had only

If I could have only

Would truth speak to save me where my pride has enslaved me

Seek shelter in what's after this your future is everything

Get a quick glimpse of forever and this changes your everything

Soon mother

Soon the wait

Soon we'll be over the waiting truth speak up

Restore my name

Beg to be broken

Heard again

Please wisdom

Be heard again please vision be heard again and once again my hesitate attempts and again this f