

98 Degrees, Dreaming

(Chorus)

Dreaming of you
Dreaming every day and every night of my life
But someone else is holding you tight
So I'll see you in my dreams girl
Have you ever wanted someone so bad
That you didn't care if they had Any idea how you feel
Cause your dreams are so real
Please help me
To understand this feeling
I'm dreaming
Your body so appealing
You're committed to someone else
But here in my mind
I have you all to myself

(Chorus)

I know how your lips taste and feel though
I've never kissed them for real,
so I find myself drifted away
To my secret place
Please help me
Understand this feeling
I'm dreaming
Your body so appealing
You're committed to someone else
But here in my mind
I'll have you all to myself

(Chorus)

Now I lay me down to sleep
I pray the lord, you're in my dreams
But you're committed, to someone else
In my mind
I'll have you all to myself

(Chorus)
