

999, Direct Action Briefing

I'm not saying
Tired of playing
My word against your word
Who's that talking
Talk talk talking
My ways not your ways
Oh I'm so tired of sitting here
Need to get a few things clear
Gimme gimme gimme gimme
Direct action briefing
Got no time to feel misplaced
Looking out in all this waste
I'm not saying
My word against your word
Who's that talking
Talk talk talking
My ways not your ways
All these people hanging on
To something they can't prey upon
I don't want your instant debt
Computer cars and rent a set
Gimme gimme gimme gimme
Direct action briefing
Never staying in one place
Getting in this human race
Direct action briefing
Direct action briefing
You can keep your stocks and shares
Credit cards and french Au Pairs
NOBODY KNOWS
Nobody knows nobody cares
You always give as what you get
And never think of what you must forget
Your back street semi sweet carry on the good work
Nobody knows nobody cares
They fight to win but always lose
Regrets will follow it's headline news
A sin to win now what's the point of living
Nobody knows nobody cares
Nobody cares nobody tries oh no
Nobody knows nobody cares
A fall down this game confused
It's gone too far now we're not amused
Your back street semi sweet carry on the Good work
