

A 45, You Dont Have To Wait

You don't have to wait boy, no more cause you found your love tonight and you don't have to worry no more and you don't have to cry boy, no more she is waiting for you and at least you're reaching a new wonderland
She is now your rainbow, so beautiful you will walk on now a festival of heartache, the spirit of love so take this moment of your life, don't ask may be it's a wonder may be one day's morning you will wake up alone in your bed You don't have to worry, you dont have to carry you just have to take your luck into your arms Your bed was never empty but your heart was so cold last night blue eyes were rising, oho ... like a warm morning sun and filled your heart with feelings, it's a thrill it's a new dimension now don't be afraid boy may be this night will be a new start
