[Verse 1: A$AP Rocky]

I remember all the nights
On different corners spittin', pitchin' water (Uh)
Now I'm richer off the shit I thought of
From the home of the richest ballers
I'm Richard Porter mixed with Mr. Porter
This picture all the jiggy shit I ordered (Uh)
I went to France and almost got deported (Yeah)
The fans is screaming when I hit the border (Uh)
I visit Nice like it's my sister's daughter
Vision broad, I thought of all the different kids and all
Poor without a sip of water, time to get my shit in order
And do somethin' different, gettin' tired of the same old shit
When I'm spittin' lines 'bout the section lines
I sit you kids who listen for us (Uh)
I see prison for us until we pull back, that's a true fact (Yeah)
Get money, yeah, I do that, thought you knew that

[Chorus: Juicy J]

Gettin' money is (What I do, falling in love with you)
Thought you knew, uh-huh
Gettin' money is (What I do, falling in love with you)
Thought y'all knew
Gettin' money is (What I do, falling in love with you baby)
It's what I do (Uh, yeah)
