A.B. Quintanilla y Los Kumbia Kings, I Never Kne

I never knew a love like this before I never knew a love like this before For once in my life I believed in my heart that I had it all A love I can trust That would never ever let me fall When suddenly my heart started feeling Scars of love that were burning Building walls, building walls Closing all my doors to love I never knew a love like this before How it's burning inside me I never knew a love like this before How I wish she would know this I never knew a love like this before She's just killing me slowly I never knew a love like this before Oh, no, no, no, babe Closing these lights I just think to myself Will this nightmare end How many tears will I have to cry Till her heart does change But I don't want to wait I don't need to feel this way I've just made a big mistake, big mistake Taking all her lies again I never knew a love like this before How it's burning inside me I never knew a love like this before How I wish she would know this I never knew a love like this before She's just killing me slowly I never knew a love like this before Oh, no, no, no, babe Now she's gone 'cause I'm letting her go Now she's gone, now I'm all alone Now she's gone away I never knew a love like this before How it's burning inside me I never knew a love like this before How I wish she would know this I never knew a love like this before She's just killing me slowly I never knew a love like this before Oh, no, no, babe I never knew a love like this before How it's burning inside me I never knew a love like this before How I wish she would know this I never knew a love like this before She's just killing me slowly I never knew a love like this before Oh, no, no, babe
