

A Change Of Pace, Every Second

Last drop of the bottle fell out
Reluctant not to crash
Enter fading lights
From top of the stage
Set in broken glass
And all these tears and pain
Silent but screaming
Out every name that we've ever loved
And all remember every second
Every moment
This cant last forever
The last drop of the bottle fell out
And we were way too late
To save a friend in need
From his family
That didn't treat him right
And all these tears and pain
Silent but screaming
Out every name that they we've ever loved
And I remember every second
Every moment
This can't last forever
Every second
Of every moment
Nothing lasts forever
Don't worry
About me
I'll be fine this time
Don't worry
About me
I'll be fine this time, this time
And I remember every second
Every moment
This can't last forever
Every second
Of every moment
Nothing lasts forever
Let us breathe softly
And keep this quiet and
No one has to know
No one has to know
Let us breathe softly
And keep this quiet and
No one has to know
No one has to know
Know, know, know
