

A Change Of Pace, She Believed

Artist Name: A Change Of Pace

Album Name:

Song Name: She Believed

come back my dear

come back and make my world again your voice so clear your voice reminds me of a friend you had a heart like a hero you sang a song that only i could ever know where would i be without you, where would i be?

how could the softest heart be separated by the word 'goodbye'?

she believed in heaven, yeah

she believed in everybody else

she believed in miracles, but never let them help honey, honey take my heart like money and run

she believed in everybody else but never in her, never in herself there's no denial you brought the world a little love and fought each mile, and fought the fight more than my love it was so much bigger than a cure it wasn't bigger than a heart that isn't sure where would i be without you, where would i be?

i wish i could (i wish i could) give what you gave to me i wish i said (i wish i said), "please don't leave (please don't leave). please don't leave. please

she believed in miracles, but never let them help, whoa

she believed in everybody else but never in her, never in her, never in her, never in herself.
