

A Day To Remember, You Already Know What Y

They used to tell me
You got to choose a side
Now it's four years later
And they beg for advice
Don't trust the critic, he's a cynic
Make the call for yourself
This is my 10 step course
To not be like everyone else
And I know it's not the easiest route
And I know it leaves you overflowing with doubt
But if you want it you can have it
Hope it's all that you dreamt
'Cause once you got it you're gonna get it
You won't be leaving this
You can't trust everyone you meet
They won't amount to anything
Go tell them, go tell them
It's not as simple as you think
You can't trust everyone you meet
They never meant that much to me
Go tell them, go tell them
It's not as simple as you think
Clenched fists held above me
You will never bring me to my knees
I said clenched fists held above me
You will never bring me to my knees
You'll get what you deserve
