

A.F.I., This Celluliod Dream

A.f.i.

Sing the Sorrow

This Celluliod Dream

Calling tears from deep inside oh you're so exquisite

And in the mirror ALL midnight eyes

Oh, If I could remain, but it's just a visit all midnight eyes

Reflections stay twisted

(Twisted)

To the love of dancing lights, I beg "May I cut in?" but they never stop playing their song

Of a joyous soul they sing

Our frivolous words, on a freezing note I rest the day

Just like romantic verses

Just like a joyous end

Just like a memory: it twists me

Just like romantic verses

Just like a joyous end

Twisted me

You ran just like the afternoon snow

(Cinematic)

Onto this melting boy

(I melt away)

You now just gave me your soul

(Cinematic)

Bathed in your radiance I melt!

In the glitter in the dark, sunken without faith

Praying this will never end

In the shadow of a star,

in static pallor

I realize I never began

All the colors upon leaving all will turn to grey

You ran just like the afternoon snow

(Cinematic)

You ran just like the afternoon snow

(And melt away)

You ran just like the afternoon snow

(Cinematic)
