

A Fine Frenzy, You Picked Me

one two three, counting out the signs we see the tall buildings fading in the distance only dots on a map four five six the two of us a perfect fit you're all mine all mine and all I can say

is you blow me away

like an apple on a tree
hiding out behind the leaves I was difficult to reach
but you picked me
like a shell upon a beach
just another pretty piece I was difficult to see
but you picked me,
yeah you picked me

so softly,
rain against the windows and the strong coffee warming up my fingers in this fisherman's house you got me,
searched the sand and climbed the tree and brought me back down

but you picked me, yeah you picked me
